

Notice to Attendees

- The program booklet does not contain lecture materials. Please download these materials.
- Please make sure you have received your nametag at the registration desk on the first floor. Please wear the nametag all the time at the conference, and present at the entrance of each room.
- A simultaneous interpretation equipment is lent out each day. Even if you have registered for all three days, please do not take the equipment out of the venue. Instead, return it at the end of each day.
- For lectures with limited seating capacity, please note that you need to have permission for attendance, and our staff will check off the list of attendees for each lecture.
- Video or audio recording as well as taking photos during the event are strictly prohibited. However, conference staff, media personnel, etc., may photograph the event in progress.
- The USB drive (with the NSCA logo) contains the supplement is sure of the Journal of Strength and Conditioning Research (JSCR) which is published especially for the poster and oral presentation at the 5th NSCA international conference.